

PC DISCONNECT / RECONNECT

We bring years of proven performance, supporting clients locally and nationally with a full range of facilities services.

A&M Business Interior Services brings together a single integrated resource for a full range of workspace transition, expansion and facility management services and support. From complete outsourcing and project management to just-in-time, or as-needed services, you can rely on us.

EXPECT PROFESSIONAL PC DISCONNECT / RECONNECT DONE RIGHT THE FIRST TIME

However large or small your PC disconnect / reconnect needs, count on A&M for prompt and professional service. Our disconnect / reconnect teams can quickly stage, sequence and execute a relocation of your PC's and any other equipment or furniture with minimal disruption and down time.

EXPECT EXPERIENCE

Leading office furniture manufacturers rely on us for local service and support across the country. Our highly trained furniture installation teams are familiar with virtually every brand of office furniture. From staging and sequencing through installation and final inspection, you have one source of contact and accountability - and only one call to make for PC Disconnect / Reconnect Services.

PC DISCONNECT / RECONNECT BENEFITS

We are your single best resource for proven efficiency and experienced support:

- Single vendor for your complete office move
- Variable cost model that lessens work load for you're internal IT resources
- No loss of productivity by employees, computers will be up and running as usual with next day service
- Single source provider addressing both equipment connectivity and wire management
- Route all cables through the work surface and reconnect each device
- Office Equipment is reconnected and powered up, establishing connectivity to the network and proper functionality

Working. In offices nationwide.

www.ambis.com